DECLARATION

I, Gregory S. Genetti hereby declare as follows:

I have served as Chief Financial Officer of Coyote Communications, Inc. since its inception on or about January 30, 1989. Since its creation, Haley Bader & Potts has served and continues to serve as Coyote's sole communications counsel. Peter A. Casciato has never been retained by Coyote as communications counsel and has never filed any rulemakings, petitions for rulemaking, comments in any rulemaking or applications on Coyote's behalf.

From approximately mid-January, 1989, until the first week of September, 1989, Peter A. Casciato, A Professional Corporation was retained by Coyote solely to act as corporate counsel. Copies of the letters engaging and terminating that service are attached hereto. Coyote may retain the services of Peter A. Casciato, A Professional Corporation upon mutual agreement in the future.

As part of a settlement agreement among the applicants in the Morgan Hill FM proceeding, MM Docket No. 88-205, in July, 1989, South Valley Broadcasting, A California Limited Partnership of which Eric Hilding was the sole general partner, elected not to make its capital contribution of $35,000.00 to Coyote and sold its interest in Coyote to two of the other applicants in the Morgan Hill proceeding for $100,000.00. Peter A. Casciato, A Professional Corporation did not represent Coyote in this transaction.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. Executed at Los Gatos, CA on June 3, 1993.

Re: Close of engagement

Dear Peter,

We regretfully request that you close our account with your offices. Amador Bustos will not currently sign a waiver enabling you to represent him via Coyote Communications, Inc. and so a conflict of interest issue may arise. It will probably be in both our best interests to end our engagement in light of this matter.

We thank you for the services you have provided.

Very truly yours,
